

Rare Dementia Panel Discussion

WHEN IT'S NOT ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE

6 p.m. EST
Wednesday, May 12

The Young Professionals Alzheimer's Council will host a thoughtful expert panel discussion about various types of dementia and the relation between Alzheimer's and dementia followed by a Q&A session.

TO REGISTER, CLICK HERE.

Featured panelists

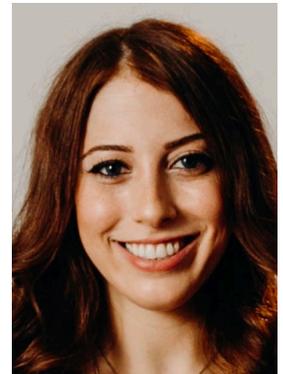

Dr Jason Cohen is an assistant professor of Neurology at Montefiore Medical Center and Albert Einstein College of Medicine

Corey Esannason, RYT, is an ambassador with AFTD and yoga educator whose mother was diagnosed with FTD in 2011

Norma Loeb was a caregiver for her mother who had LBD for many years. She founded the Lewy Body Dementia Resource Center

Erica Steiner cares for her mother, who has early-onset Alzheimer's. She chronicles her experiences online to help other caregivers