

Independent Event Policy

Thank you for your interest in hosting an Independent Event to support The Association for Frontotemporal Degeneration (AFTD). Each year, we receive requests from individuals, groups, companies, and organizations who wish to host events to benefit AFTD's mission. We are extremely grateful for funds raised through these events. Proceeds help AFTD to support individuals and families struggling with FTD – and to bring forward a future free of this disease.

Because of the volume of the requests that we receive, we cannot personally participate in each event that is proposed. Therefore, we have developed criteria for participation. These rules apply to event hosts who wish to use the name of AFTD and/or its logo in promoting an event, and not to companies organizing internal employee events.

AFTD is pleased to acknowledge and support Independent Events as part of our Grassroots Events Program. An AFTD Grassroots Event is defined as an event and/or fundraiser hosted by one or more AFTD volunteer(s) to raise funds in support of our mission. The individual, group, company or organization plans and puts on the event and incurs all expenses. All advertising for the event states what percentage or total of the proceeds will go to AFTD. All promotional materials state that AFTD is the beneficiary of the proceeds.

As a Grassroots Event Host, we ask that you provide all elements needed to complete your event. Before an individual, group, company or organization may proceed with an event to benefit AFTD, the attached form must be completed and returned to the office for approval. You will be notified when your proposal is approved. We ask that these rules and regulations be followed:

Rules and Regulations

- I. AFTD is not responsible for providing liability insurance for your event. The hosting individual, group, company or organization assumes full responsibility for the event. Grassroots Event Hosts indemnify and hold harmless AFTD from liabilities, losses and expenses arising from the event.
- II. AFTD cannot sign or obtain a contract or permit for an Independent Grassroots Event. Additionally, a Grassroots Event Host may not sign or obtain a contract or permit on behalf of AFTD for their event. This includes all rules and regulations associated with Gaming.
- III. If AFTD's name and/or logo is intended to be used in promoting your event, AFTD must be notified in advance as being a beneficiary of the event and reserves the right to approve the details of that event prior to any publicity, and prior to any financial or legal obligations being undertaken. The details may include, but are not limited to, type of function, date, budget, ticket price, financial goals, intended audience, schedule, entertainment and sponsorships (both cash and in-kind goods and services). If income derived from the event is not sufficient to cover the expenses, the sponsoring company, individual, group or organization will be responsible for meeting the deficit.
- IV. The name and/or logo of AFTD may not be used, reproduced or distributed in any manner without the express permission of AFTD. All promotional material that includes the AFTD name and/or logo must be approved prior to use. The official logo will be made available upon approval. Up to two weeks lead-time may be required for the release of the organizational name and/or logo.
- V. An individual, group, company or organization may not offer, on behalf of AFTD, free tickets, advertising or mentions in event programs in exchange for cash donations, sponsorships or underwriting. Items sold at your event are not tax-deductible.

- VI. AFTD cannot guarantee media coverage (television, radio or print). You may contact the media about your event and communicate with AFTD contacts any arrangements that are made.
- VII. AFTD will, when able, help you promote your event through its website, social media pages and newsletters.
- VIII. AFTD is prohibited from purchasing any advertising, including that which promotes Grassroots Events.
- IX. AFTD cannot solicit in-kind donations, auction items, prizes or alcohol for your event.
- X. AFTD employees and volunteers may be available for consultation on planning and promoting your event. AFTD cannot guarantee employees and/or volunteers will be available physically for your event. However, if a request is made at least one month prior to the event, AFTD will attempt to provide a volunteer representative based on availability in the geographic area.
- XI. In order to be considered 100 percent tax-deductible, donations must be made directly to "The Association for Frontotemporal Degeneration" or "AFTD" by credit card or check. AFTD cannot receipt cash donations. If a check is made out to an event host, the host can endorse the back and write "for deposit by AFTD." If a lump net some is provided to AFTD, AFTD will write a receipt for that cumulative amount that may be copied and distributed. It is up to the donor to consult with their tax professional to determine to what extent their contribution is tax deductible.

Proceeds from your event will benefit programs and services provided by AFTD.

Thank you for role in helping to bring about an end to this disease!
