

Every FTD Story Counts – Volunteer Today!

Become an AFTD volunteer to improve care & support and drive research to a future free of FTD.

AFTD Volunteer Opportunities

Estimated time commitment

Community Awareness

Social Media Awareness	Raise awareness through social media by following AFTD channels and reposting or sharing your FTD story	1 hour a week
Provider Outreach	Share AFTD curated packets with healthcare professionals and care providers in your local community	1.5 hour training + 1 hour a month
Information Table	Raise awareness by representing AFTD at conferences and other community events	2 hours set up + time of event
Meet & Greets	Plan and facilitate an informal gathering (in person or virtual) to connect people affected by FTD with each other and AFTD	6 hours to set up and run

Support Groups

Support Group Facilitator	Organize and facilitate a peer-based, caregiver support group (professional experience not required and facilitator training provided)	Approx. 5 hours per month, 2-year commitment required

Fundraising & Events

Food for Thought	Host an in-person or virtual event during World FTD Awareness Week bringing together food, fun, and connection (September/October)	30 minutes to as long as you would like - contact our Events team to find an event that works for you!
With Love	Create a fundraising page with our easy tool and share your FTD story of love online (February)
Race Season	Join the AFTD-Team in an established race (walk or run), or assist at AFTD's tent on race day (year-round)
Independent Events	Plan and host your own event, such as a golf tournament, with our help (year-round)

Research

Insights to FTD Researchers	Use your own FTD experience to help scientists better conduct research (e.g. sitting on focus groups or advisory board, providing feedback on research materials)	On an as-needed basis
-----------------------------	---	-----------------------

Ambassador Program

AFTD Ambassador	Represent AFTD in your state through networking, outreach, speaking engagements and attending events on AFTD's behalf	4 hours a month and annual in-person Summit
